Don't get lost.

Travel with a friend.

At Jamison, Money, Farmer & Company, we know how easy it is to get lost in the theory, speculation and advice that are an everyday part of business decisions.

That is why, in business and in life, we believe it is important to have friends.

A friend to your business is someone who knows it almost as well as you do, has the experience, training and knowledge necessary to help you sort through information and make sound business decisions.

Friends in life are those who enrich the lives of others and help them learn. JMF & Co. would like to thank the Shelton State Baseball Program for being a friend to West Alabamians; for teaching teamwork and exhibiting sportsmanship.

We salute your commitment to progress.
